

South Australian Self Management Alliance Privacy Policy

This site is provided to you by the South Australian Self Management Alliance. This statement sets out the South Australian Self Management Alliance's policy relating to the privacy and security of your personal information and applies only to this site.

These policies are based on national and international privacy standards and they conform to the Government of South Australia's Information Privacy Principles.

Data collected while browsing

The South Australian Self Management Alliance does not collect information to identify individuals who visit the site.

However, when you visit this site, we may compile data that records and logs your visit with information collected strictly for statistical purposes only.

This information may be analysed regularly to determine the site's usage statistics. No attempt will be made to identify users or their browsing activities.

Contact Us

The South Australian Self Management Alliance retains the e-mail address of people who send e-mails through the SASMA email address and Contact Us form, for the purpose of sending a response. They are stored in a secure area within the South Australian Self Management Alliance database.

The information will only be used for the purpose for which you have provided it. However, you should be aware that the email might be forwarded to another person within the South Australian Self Management Alliance or an associated service provider to facilitate a direct, accurate and efficient response.

Your email address will not be added to any mailing lists without your permission.

Security and privacy of information

The South Australian Self Management Alliance is responsible for the privacy and security of information while it is collected, stored on or passing through this site.

Every effort has been made to ensure the security of information submitted to the South Australian Self Management Alliance via the site's Contact Us form, however the security of information submitted cannot be guaranteed.

No personal information will be published on this site.

Links to other sites

Please note that the South Australian Self Management Alliance website provides links to a number of other websites with relevance to the community, business or government of South Australia. When you click on a link to a non-South Australian Self Management Alliance website, you leave this site and are no longer protected by the privacy conditions which attach to the site.
